Assurant Employee Benefits receives high marks with employee benefits plan administrators

KANSAS CITY, Mo., (October 15, 2009) – Employee benefits plan administrators are highly satisfied with Assurant Employee Benefits, ranking the organization first in several categories in a recent study conducted by LIMRA, a leading insurance industry research organization.

According to the research, plan administrators with Assurant Employee Benefits group coverages ranked the business first among group carriers in the following areas:

- Overall satisfaction with the carrier*
- Providing service that exceeds expectations*
- Being easy to do business with*
- Likely to recommend the carrier to a benefit manager at another company*

Among voluntary/worksites carriers, Assurant Employee Benefits ranked first in the percentage of policyholders who have greater interest in obtaining a proposal for additional coverage compared to last year.

“The results achieved by Assurant Employee Benefits in LIMRA’s survey of plan administrators is proof of our dedication to providing exceptional products and service,” said Marc Warrington, senior vice president of sales at Assurant
